BLIND FIGHTERS.

Antics of Papers which Manufacture Their Own Facts.

To a person of limited intelligence in general affairs and one who is ignorant of the political history of his time, the charges made against Republican candidates for office in the Virginia City Chronicle appear as models of logical reasoning and the case as argued in its columns seem almost unanswerable.

A mere casual inspection of the facts in the case cause the Chronicle's position to tumble to pieces like a house of cards. The chain of argument followed by the Chronicle is all correct except the first link.

It has worked itself and probably some of its readers into a frenzy of excitement on the charge that Senator Stewart has an immense railroad sack behind him and that the roads are sending him to Washington because they want his assistance in swindling the Government by extending the mortgage on the Pacific railroads. If W. M. Stewart was indeed a tool of monied men and Republican corporations to swindle the Government he would indeed be unfit for the office of Senator.

The facts in the case are:
 1st, The mortgage on the bonds will not expire until after Stewart has served his time as Senator. They expire in 1895 not in 1890 as the Democratic organs will have it.

2nd, The extension of the mortgage is not a railroad move to swindle the Government, but a Government move to compel the road to pay the interest on the mortgage.

3rd, It is not a Republican but a Democratic measure. The proposition is to compel the roads to pay three and a half millions of dollars per year into the National Treasury for seventy five years. Is there anything out of the way in that?

The measure came from a committee composed of ten Democrats and five Republicans. This is the heaviest charge and the loudest and longest dwelt upon of any issue in the campaign.

It originated in this way:
 When Stewart was announced as a candidate, a man remarked that he was a personal friend of Steve Gaige of the C. P. R. R.

Another man said if that was so this must be some big railroad plot.

A third figured out that the mortgages on the road were to be extended and Stewart was hired to engineer the job.

To make things dovetail they knocked five years off the mortgage and said it expired in 1890 and called it a Republican job. Now that they have been made to realize that the bill is a Democratic measure, that it will not come up during Stewart's term, that it is more of an anti-railroad bill than otherwise, the campaign thunder of two months dies away as useless as so much noise always is.

The Chronicle makes the blunder of allowing its editors to manufacture the facts of a case without taking the precaution to consult the Congressional Record recognized as the official authority on National Legislation.

This Congressional Record is a great book, it overturns a thousand pet theories of live eyed writers for the press, it demolishes scores of apparently live campaign issues, and is the rock upon which thousands of blockhead newspapers split.

A man howls the assertion from the stump that John Smith a Republican Congressman introduced a bill to lower the wages of labor. The laboring class curse Smith. Along comes a friend of Smith, opens the Record points to page 284 and shows that Brown a Democratic Congressman introduced the bill. What answer has Smith's accuser to that?

Now that the Chronicle learns that the bill is not a railroad measure but is to put money in the Government Treasury, it can have but two lines of defense, as follows:

ANOTHER ROTTEN JOB.

It is now definitely ascertained that a job is on foot to enable the United States Government to collect three millions and a half every year from the Pacific railroads and this sum piled away in the Treasury will all be stolen when the Republican party comes into power in 1898. Wm. Stewart the Emma Mine rascal is to be sent to Washington to engineer the scheme. Will Nevada voters submit to this outrage?

A RAILROAD SCHEME.

The scoundrelly railroad corporations are just beginning to realize that after 1895 they must pay their taxes to the U. S. Government.

They propose to send William Stewart to the Senate to obstruct and thwart this scheme. Will the plundered State of Nevada tamely submit. All honor to the unpurchasable Democrats who introduced the measure.

The Chronicle is making a blind fight. It should subscribe for the Congressional Record and insist that its editors keep posted on national affairs.

ALL SORTS.

—The stock excitement still continues.

—The Republican county ticket gains ground daily.

—Gen. Morrison is back again from San Francisco.

—John Mackay is on the Comstock with his war paint on. He proposes to make a deal in stocks and politics.

—Joe. Harlow has the whole State ticket printed on his card, and his own just over the outer edge. It has a neat effect and he will vote it on election day.

—Powning is trying to worm back into the party. Having received no nomination as yet from the Democrats he proposes to "quit the dod basted outfit."

—Lost—On Tuesday evening between John Furlong's house and the depot, a small, gold stem-winding watch. A reward of $10 will be paid the finder, if left at this office.

—An elephant got drunk in New York recently and wiped the side walk with his owner. This is, we believe the first instance of any Gold Hill whiskey being exported from this State.

—The Chronicle asserts that Adams is walking all around Stevenson. Exactly, just as Paddy Ryan has walked around Sullivan for the past year. When Sullivan is in Chicago Ryan goes all around by St. Louis to reach New York.

—Though numerous causes may operate to turn the hair gray, all that is needed to restore the natural color is Hall's Vegetable Sennah Hair Renewer. For more than twenty years its sales have been enormous, but we have yet to learn of its first failure.

—An elastic step, buoyant spirits, and clear complexion, are among the many desirable results of pure blood. The possessor of healthy blood has his faculties at command, and enjoys a clear and quick perception, which is impossible when the blood is heavy and sluggish with impurities. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier and vitalizer known.

—From the telegraphic headlines in the Call we judge that Cleveland had rather a lively time in Virginia. This is how the Call announces it:

THE WAY THE PRESIDENT ENJOYED HIS TRIP TO RICHMOND.

SHOT HIS BROTHER—LYNCHED BY A MOB OF MASKED MEN—ETC.

—Mr. Cassidy said in his Virginia City talk that there was not an omnibus load of Democratic free traders in the United States and that no Democrat ever introduced a free trade bill. Mr. Cassidy is referred to Mr. Morrison and his free trade bill which puts almost everything known to commerce on the free list, and McMillan, Democratic free trade nominee for Congress, who spoke along side him last night.

Stewart in Virginia City.

Senator Stewart spoke to a tremendous audience in Virginia last evening and sent the hot shot back into the camp of his traducers in magnificent style. The enemy will find Stewart a hard hitter.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the best horse liniment now in the market go to Doc. Denton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the fancy brands.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

C. C. Powning taken into Fair's Camp.

The Reno Gazette thus shows up the true inwardness of Powning's surrender to the Democratic party:

Six years ago, Senator Fair corrupted his own party; now he is corrupting both parties, so far as he can. During the Summer he kept sending for prominent Republicans and holding secret meetings with them whenever possible. He had several secret interviews with Thomas Wren, and those who know Mr. Fair can form a good idea of their nature. Fortunately Mr. Wren was made of good stuff, and the result is Eureka county has put a straight Republican ticket that will make the good of the county and State and the Republican party their first concern.

Mr. Fair has kept Surveyor General Powning in office, and done his best to make him important in his party, solely for the purpose of splitting it. While holding a Democratic office Mr. Powning has undertaken to absolutely rule the Republican Party. All this year he has had nothing but hard words for the Republican candidates for the Senate, and nothing but praise for Senator Fair. He has been in almost constant consultation with Democratic politicians, and Democratic papers have been steadily boosting him. He undertook to pack the county Convention for the purpose of nominating a Legislative ticket that would prefer his interests to the county or the party's and make a deadlock in the Legislature. He was defeated, and is now a bolter, working openly for Senator Fair's Legislative ticket. All this time he has, perhaps innocently, been the best workman Senator Fair has had in the State of Nevada, either Democratic or Republican. This makes him for the once the admiration of the Democrats. Their papers and speakers cannot exalt him to highly. Mr. Cassidy made him the subject of quite an eulogy last night in his speech.

In Carson, advantages have been taken of the anti-Chinese sentiment and the greatest efforts have been made by Fair's agents to encourage it sufficiently to split the party there. There has not been any lack of money to carry on the club. They have a newspaper and what ever was found necessary to injure the Republican party was forth coming.

Their tactics are characteristic of Mr. Fair. Low cunning is his strongest trait, and he has played upon the weakness of some of the would-be leaders of the Republican party in this State, greatly to the damage of the party, and to their own ruin.

Last Night's Meeting.
 Messrs. Cassidy and McMillan spoke last evening at the Opera House. McMillan did not make all of the speech which Mr. Woodburn outlined the evening before. When he reached town, prominent Democrats told him he must shelve some portions of the speech and make it dove tail more with Cassidy. When they started in to expunge they wanted to knock out all of it. If Mr. McMillan would hire the services of two professional expurgers to travel with him he would do better. Woodburn had so carefully exposed the fallacies of his speech that no enthusiasm could be worked up. Mr. Cassidy astonished some of his listeners with a eulogy on Fair, but did not explain his remark made some weeks ago, that he "was not hunting Fair, and it would be dollars to dumplings that Fair would hunt him first."

Both speakers seemed to be laboring under the impression that the jig was up with the Democrats in Nevada, and the audience was only enthusiastic under protest. Another such meeting and two more such speakers will give the Republicans in Ormsby 300 majority in November.

Bewildered Voters.

"I'm going to vote for Bartine" said a man on Main St. yesterday. "What's he running for?" "Can't call the turn exactly but the Union's abusin him so that I've made up my mind to stand in."

"Bartine? Why he ain't running at all."

"Then why is the Union abusin him so?"

"Dunno, les it's cause he's outer town."
